

Spartico Receives 89 Points from Planet Grape!

Greetings!

We are thrilled that our Spartico red blend has just received an 89 point rating from Planet Grape. Ratings are conducted by renowned wine expert Catherine Fallis, the world's fifth female Master Sommelier, along with a panel of top-level credentialed beverage industry experts.

We understand that the future of wine critique will not be traditional media, but instead will be in the hands of social media and wine bloggers personally trusted by readers. A Wine Opinions study titled "Tracking Wine Media Usage and the Influence of Critics" found that "24% of consumers in the study's panel read wine blogs, about double the level which read the Wine Advocate or eRobertparker.com." We continue to search for key pockets of influence in this digital age as Fallis and others usher in a new era of wine review.

2015 Spartico Organic Tempranillo Cabernet Sauvignon Utiel-Requena Superiore

2015 Spartico Utiel-Requena Superiore DOP Valencia Spain 89
13%, 750 ml, $11.99

Soft, juicy and gentle with notes of raspberry, cherry cola, fig newton and dark chocolate. USDA Organic.

Spartico red blend, USDA Certified Organic with No Detectable Sulfites from Spain. The full, rich wine is a 50/50 blend of Spain's most prominent and popular Tempranillo grape as well as Spanish Cabernet. The wine truly captures the pure expression of the grapes, without the use of any additives, including sulfites.

Please let me know if you would like to receive a sample bottle of the wine, or if you have any additional questions about these or any of our fine wines.

Sincerely,

Edward Field
