

WINE WITH BODY AND SOUL FROM THE HEART OF SPAIN ~ TARANTAS TIENE CUERPO Y ALMA

March 25, 2016

“Pure wines capturing the essence of Spain in every glass,” Tarantas Wines are made with 100% certified organic grapes. Their commitment to sustainability is backed by third-party certification: Made with 100% USDA Certified Organic Grapes, Non-GMO Project Verified, and Vegan Friendly with no animal byproducts used in production.

The wines are elaborated by winemakers Francisco Galbardón—Professor of Enology at Spain’s oldest School of Enology and rising star winemaker Raul Herrero. The Tarantas brand was inspired by the free-flowing, open art form of Flamenco song and dance of the same name, celebrated in Southeast Spain.

Tarantas Wines are produced by Bodegas Iranzo, based in the old-world village of Requena, only a stone’s throw from the historic and metropolitan city of Valencia. Bodegas Iranzo is located in the D.O. Utiel-Requena – the second largest in Spain. The winery produces some of Spain’s Oldest Estate Bottled Wines, with the first recorded written evidence of the vineyard Cañada Honda Estate owned by the Iranzo Perez–Duque family dating back to 1335 as granted by King Pedro I of Castilla. Bodegas Iranzo is the only winery in Europe located within a national reserva.

Tarantas Wines include:

Tarantas Tempranillo Crianza- 100% Tempranillo, aged for at least 6 months. Share with friends over a meal - it's a wine that calls for the next bite.

Tarantas Monastrell –100% Monastrell from Jumilla has a smooth texture, with savory red fruits, soft and round tannins and a pure finish.
